Dr. Daniel Taube, Ph.D. earned his J.D. from Villanova University and his Ph.D. from Hahnemann University. He is a Full Professor at the California School of Professional Psychology. His areas of professional focus include ethical and legal issues in professional practice, child protection, addictions, and disability and parenting. He has been in private practice for 23 years. He regularly consults with a wide range of practitioners and community agencies regarding standards of practice and ethical concerns.

"Ethics and Risk Management in a Digital World"

Dr. Arthur Evans, Ph.D. is the new CEO of the American Psychological Association (APA). For the last 12 years, Evans has been commissioner of Philadelphia's Department of Behavioral Health and Intellectual disability Services. Evans has been recognized nationally and internationally as an innovative and effective policymaker. Among his numerous awards, he was named by the White House Office of National Drug Control Policy as an Advocate for Action in 2015.

"The Future of Psychology and the APA"

Dr. Robin Barry, Ph.D. is a clinical psychologist & Assistant Professor of Psychology at the University of Wyoming. His research and clinical expertise has primarily focused on communication in intimate and family relationships, and how close relationships influence people's well-being. In the last few years, Dr. Barry has begun working with family caregivers of adults with physical and/or mental illness. He is currently developing and implementing programs and resources for family caregivers in Wyoming.
